Returns policy

Returns

You can, within 28 (TWENTY EIGHT) calendar days of receiving a Product ordered from uniqlo.com ("Site") ("Product"), return any Product that you are not completely happy with.

Once you decide to return any Product you must not use it and must take good care of it while it remains in your possession. The Product must be returned to us undamaged, unsoiled, unwashed, unaltered or not worn (other than to try the Product(s) on and in the same state that it was sold to you. Please note that where possible, any labels or tags must remain intact and the Product(s) should be returned in or with its original packaging.

Returning Products to a store

If you wish, you can return a Product to a physical UNIQLO store located in the UK. However, please note that you cannot return a Product to a UNIQLO store if you are cancelling your contract within the 14 days cooling off period as described below.

You must take your Products to one of our UK UNIQLO stores within 28 days of receiving the Products, with the Tax Invoice enclosed in your parcel as your receipt. Find your nearest UNIQLO store by clicking here.

The Tax Invoice must be presented and you will be asked for the reason for the return and whether you would like an exchange or refund. You will also have to present the original purchase card to receive a refund.

You will not be charged a fee for exchanging or returning a Product at a store.

Returning Products by post (Please note: This is only applicable to online purchases)

- Complete the returns note and enclose it with your Product(s).
- Ensure the Product(s) is in a securely wrapped parcel. Complete and place the returns address label provided on the parcel.
- The returns address is: UNIQLO, Lodge Road, Staplehurst, Tonbridge, Kent, TN12 0QW, ENGLAND.

- Take the parcel (with the enclosed returns note) to a Post Office or courier. Ask the Post Office or courier for your proof of posting certificate. The clerk will stamp the proof of postage on dispatch and you should retain this until you receive your refund. Regrettably we can only provide a refund for a lost return once we have been provided with a proof of postage certificate.
- Please remember to complete the returns note with your returned Products.

It is your responsibility to keep all return receipts, making a shipment by registered mail or by any other means necessary to enable a precise proof of the sending date.

When do I get refund once I have returned an item?

Please note we will refund you in 14 (FOURTEEN) calendar days from the date on which we receive the returned the Product(s) to the specified address (please see above). Any refunds made by us will be made to the method of payment provided when you placed your order and will be subject to Uniqlo right to withhold amounts for Products which are found damaged on return. You will be refunded the amount you paid for the Product(s) returned excluding any delivery charges (if appropriate). In other words, we will refund you the cost of the Products but not your delivery charges.

Promotion and discount codes

If you decide to return an order that has been purchased with a discount code applied, the amount refunded will be subject to the minimum spend of the discount code. This means that if the items returned bring the remaining total below the minimum spend of the discount code then the discounted amount will be deducted from the refund. For example, a £10 discount (with a minimum threshold spend of £60 – excluding the delivery charge) will be removed if the returned Product(s) brings the total order value below £60.

Returning an order with a free postage discount (which has not been provided as a code) will not affect the refund value.

Cancellation rights

If you fail to comply with this obligation, we may have a right of action against you for compensation. You are only liable for any diminished value of the Product(s) resulting from the handling other than what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the Product(s).
